Another Tableaux Party.

The ladies of this city are busily preparing another series of tableaux, charades, etc., to be exhibited at Lappin's Hall on Tuesday evening, Oct. 7, the profits to be devoted to supplying the wants of our sick and wounded soldiers, through the medium of the Ladies' Hospital Relief Society.

The tableaux party given some four weeks since under the management of nearly the same committee who have charge of the one in contemplation, was decidedly a success; and the money realized furnished very timely aid to the society, which would soon have been obliged to suspend its benevolent work for lack of funds. Such is the call for sanitary stores that this society has more applications for aid than it can supply. Again the treasury is nearly empty. It is this need, together with the urgent desire expressed by many citizens, the former tableaux might be repeated, that has induced the ladies to decide on giving another similar entertainment next Tuesday evening. Refreshments will be provided, and no effort will be wanting to secure good music, and to make the affair most satisfactory.

DEATH OF EDWARD O. WRIGHT.—We regret to hear that Mr. Wright of this city received to-day information of the death of his son Edward in Fairfax Seminary hospital. He sank gradually, we understand, after the operation performed upon him. His body, we learn, is expected here sometime this week.

CHAPTER MEETING.—The regular meeting of Janesville Chapter, R. A. M., will be held at the lodge room in Young America block, to-morrow evening at 7 o'clock. Every member is hereby notified to be present.

E. LEWIS, H. P.

☞ Cadwell's Opera Troupe performed last evening at Lappin's Hall, for the first time. On account of the inclemency of the weather the house was not as full as we anticipated. We have seen a number of minstrel troupes in Lappin's Hall, and think we can safely say that this is the best company of the kind that has ever visited us. To-night they perform again with an entire change of programme, introducing for the first time in this city the great burlesque opera of "Oh Hush." Let the hall be filled. Cards of admission 25 cents.

DANE COUNTY REPUBLICAN TICKET.—Willet S. Main, sheriff; Wm. Vroman, treasurer; A. Pickarts, register; Frank H. Firmin, clerk of the court; J. H. Carpenter, district attorney; John A. Johnson, clerk of the board; T. D. Coryell, surveyor; Samuel Shumway, coroner. This is a strong and popular ticket, and with suitable effort can be elected.

☞ Gen. Hooker, who was wounded in the foot at the battle of Antietam, is improving, and will soon leave Washington and return to northern New York, where his family resides.

A LARGE APPLE.—We have in our office an apple raised by Wm. Strawser in the town of Janesville, which weighs 21½ ounces, and is 14½ inches in circumference.

Renting of Slips Postponed.

The renting of the slips in Christ Church is postponed until Thursday next, at 10 o'clock A. M.

H. T. SELBY,
d2t. Secretary.

Judson's Mountain Herb Pills.—How strange and wonderful it often seems to us that a medicine composed of simple mountain herbs and roots, should so certainly search out and cure disease. How surprising that the Indians should know and preserve so long and well a secret that has escaped the search of the greatest physicians the world has ever seen. True, the ancient inhabitants of Mexico were a strange race, found by the Spaniards living in large cities, and allowing for their strange customs and religion as well civilized as their conquerors. In the words of a writer of some celebrity, "They have perished from the earth, their cities are gigantic piles of ruins, their Kings and Princes so mighty in their life, are forgotten; their ruins and their medicine alone are left." The united testimony of all intelligent persons is, that JUDSON'S MOUNTAIN HERB PILLS are the most successful medicine in the world in curing disease.
Sold by all Medicine Dealers. se15dawlm.

Chicago Market.

TUESDAY, Sept. 30, 3 P. M.

There was little or no inquiry for spring wheat today and the market was dull and neglected; small sales of No 1 were made at 91a92c, and No 2 at 84a85c. Winter wheat was in good request but prices were irregular; No 1 red sold at 1,01½a1,03, No 2 white at 1,00, No 2 red at 95a96c and rejected at 69½a80c. The flour market was scarcely so firm, but there was no quotable change in prices.

Corn was in fair demand for shipment and the market ruled firm and steady with sales of yellow at 36½c afloat, high mixed at 34½c afloat, canal mixed at 32a 33½c afloat, yellow at 31a32½c in store, mixed at 30a 31c in store, and rejected at 25½a26c in store.

Oats opened firm and buoyant, with liberal sales at 31½a35c, but towards the close the market became rather tame, and several thousand bushels changed hands at 34c. Rye ruled steady and firm at 42c for No 1.

Barley was in good request, and for prime grades the market was very firm, sales ranged from 70a75c for good to choice lots. Timothy seed steady.

Provisions quiet, 270 barrels city packed mess pork sold at $9,50.

Lake freights ruled steady with engagements at 10c for corn and 8c for oats to Buffalo, 7½c for rye to Collingwood, and 15c for corn to Kingston.

The demand for eastern exchange is light, and the market rather heavy. The banks are buying at ½a ¼ per cent discount and selling at ¼ per cent premium. Round lots could doubtless be had at par.—Currency is in fair supply and good demand for the movement of produce. Rates of discount range from 8a10c per annum. Gold is still advancing. The brokers to day were offering 1,22a1,22½, and 1,23 might be obtained for a fair amount. Custom house notes have advanced in New York to 1,20½. The buying rates here to-day were 1,19a1,19.

and have all the advantage of a reversible feed motion, which carries the work either way, which, together with making all the four stitches, can be done whilst the machine is in motion; the saving of time in stopping to change the length of stitch, is obviated by this machine.

DR. J BOVEE DODS'
IMPERIAL WINE
BITTERS,

ARE made from a pure and unadulterated Wine, which is about double the usual strength of other Wines, and is imported by only one house in the United States. THEIR EQUAL!

We do not profess to have discovered some Roots "known only to the Indians of South America," and a cure for "all diseases which flesh is heir to," but we claim to present to the public a truly valuable preparation, which every intelligent Physician in the country will approve of and recommend. As a remedy for

INCIPIENT CONSUMPTION,

Weak Lungs, Indigestion, Dyspepsia, Diseases of the Nervous System, Paralysis, Piles, Diseases peculiar to Females, Debility, and all cases requiring a Tonic, they are

UNSURPASSED!

For Sore Throat, so common among the Clergy, they are truly valuable.

For the aged and infirm, or for persons of a weak constitution—for Ministers of the Gospel, Lawyers, and all public speakers—for Book-Keepers, Tailors, Seamstresses, Students, Artists, and all persons leading a sedentary life, they will prove truly beneficial.

As a Beverage, they are wholesome, innocent, and delicious to the taste. They produce all the exhilarating effects of Brandy or Wine, without intoxicating; and are a valuable remedy for persons addicted to excessive use of strong drink, and wish to refrain from it. They are pure and entirely free from the poison contained in the adulterated Wines and Liquors with which the country is flooded.

These Bitters not only CURE, but PREVENT Disease, and should be used by all who live in a country where the water is bad, or where Chills and Fevers are prevalent. Being entirely innocent and harmless, they may be given freely to Children and Infants with impunity.

Physicians, Clergymen and temperance advocates, as an act of humanity, should assist in spreading these truly valuable BITTERS over the land, and thereby essentially aid in banishing Drunkenness and Disease.

DAILY GAZETTE.

The Foreign Demand for American Breadstuffs--Practical Hints.

Last winter and spring, the prospect was that after the harvest of 1862, the large foreign demand for our breadstuffs would nearly cease. It was certainly to be expected that after two short harvests, and with the extraordinary breadth of winter wheat sown in good condition last autumn, this year would witness an abundant supply in England and on the continent. But the result is, (happily for us) quite otherwise. Every succeeding week's intelligence brings out this fact more clearly. As one certain indication, we may note that in London, wheat and flour are considerably higher than they were last year, and during the early summer of this year. It is now evident that, owing to continuous rains all through the early summer, the wheat straw in Great Britain made a poor sickly growth. On this point we are positive from our own observation. Such straw could not yield large heads of plump grain. The best authorities, and reports from hundreds of careful observers in different parts of the kingdom, admit a yield quite below the average. In France, and in Central Europe, the wheat crop is not above the average—rather below if anything. The condition of the wheat crop in Portugal, and probably in Spain, is sufficiently indicated by the fact that the Portuguese government has taken the unusual course of throwing open the ports of that country to the free importation of breadstuffs. Official announcement of this was made to our government through the Portuguese minister, a few days since. In short, the whole tenor of our recent advices from the other side of the Atlantic, is, that there will be a steady demand for all the breadstuffs we can spare from our crop of 1862. From what we can gather, the breadth of wheat sown in our own country this fall is not large, owing mainly to the scarcity of labor. It becomes us to consume corn largely, and save our wheat for market. It will be well, also, for farmers to plan for a large surface of spring wheat, wherever it can be grown with advantage. As much ground as possible should be broken up before the ground freezes. The action of frost upon new-plowed land is very useful, and the soil broken up now will be in condition for working earlier in spring. —American Agriculturist.

THE HARPER'S FERRY AFFAIR.—The shameful surrender of this place frets like a canker worm upon every loyal heart. The more it is thought of, and the more facts are developed, the more annoying becomes the reflection that our government has been subjected to so tame a surrender of so important a point, and so humiliating a sacrifice. It now appears that the number of our brave soldiers taken prisoners, paroled and lost to the service, at a time, too, when they are needed and could be made serviceable, is not short of fourteen thousand, with all their small arms—14,000—one hundred cannon, including six or seven fine batteries, a large number of horses and mules, one hundred tons of ammunition, and supplies for fourteen thousand men twenty days. It makes every one feel ashamed, superinducing thoughts of imbecility, treachery, &c., as he sees these paroled prisoners, by whole regiments, passing through our streets daily, bereft of the fine accouterments, arms, &c., they possessed when they came up from the loyal states to fight for the Union. We also feel a deeper blush of shame in having the fact forced upon us, that Harper's Ferry with its valuable stores, and brave men were yielded up without being allowed to strike a blow in their own defense, while, at the same time, they felt their ability to hold the place, or show fight, at least, until relieved by re-enforcements. Two regiments of the parolled prisoners from this regretfully remembered place passed thro' here to-day for Camp Douglas at Chicago. I believe the design is to use these troops against the refractory Indians until such time as we capture enough of the rebels to effect their exchange. Ten thousand additional exchanges have recently been agreed upon. A few more Harper's Ferry and Munfordsville affairs will throw upon us, wholly useless, an army of paroled prisoners, half as large as the entire rebel army.—Baltimore Cor. Cincinnati Gazette.

NEW BUSINESS FOR THE CORN EXCHANGE.—A good thing come off on Tuesday, when the Corn Exchange's last crops left Philadelphia for Harrisburg. Among the men was one who had a young wife. While they were waiting for the order to march, the young wife was taking leave of her husband, in accents broken, and eyes that lay bedewed in tears, like violets in a summer shower. The man caressed her, but the tears still started; he told her of the patriotism and munificence of the Corn Exchange Association, yet the crystals continued to fall; he told her of the country's danger, but her anguish was not soothed. At last, weary of his endeavors, he tried another tack. "Sally," said he, "quit crying. You see what the Corn Exchange has done. They have paid you my bounty, fitted me out, and everything."

"Yes," the girl sobbed, "but"—

"But what?"

"But if you get killed—what then?"

"Why"—the man hesitated for a moment until a lucky thought struck him—"Why the Corn Exchange will find you another husband!"

The ludicrousness of the idea changed the current of the girl's feelings, and a smile wreathed her pretty mouth and dimples in a manner that was pleasant to behold. The last tear rolled away, and as the word "forward" was given, she gave the young recruit a last kiss, and departed in good cheer. —Phila. Am.

Propositions for Peace.

The statement that the rebels have commissioners on the way with propositions for peace, is already contradicted. We trust it will be useless for them to make any offers whatever. The government should turn a deaf ear to them, and go on with the fighting, until they lay down their arms and submit to the constitution and the laws. These are the only terms which the loyal people will listen to. It would be a very convenient thing for them to have an armistice of a few months, but not for us. All terms are out of the question, and all delays for such purpose are ruinous to our cause.

The Conspiracy.

The following is from the London correspondence of the New York Times, of the 9th ult. It was written in advance of the President's late proclamation suspending the writ of habeas corpus, yet curiously enough it anticipates that important document. The recent violent opposition of the leaders of the democratic party against all the efforts of the administration to suppress the rebellion, and the attempt to array that party in opposition to every war measure, gives color to the suspicion that they have a secret understanding with the southern traitors:

The correspondent of the London Herald, whose name, character and antecedents are well known in England, and whose feelings and notions are, by some at least, well understood, lets a very black cat out of the bag in one of his recent letters. I have before this given you an intimation of a conspiracy on the part of leading northern democrats to carry over at least three northern states to the southern confederacy.—These states are Pennsylvania, Ohio and Indiana. I ought, perhaps, to include Illinois. How far this project has been carried towards its attempted realization, it would be difficult to say. You have more accurate information than I can gather here. But, if as far advanced as I think it probable, an effort will be made at the coming elections. It is certain that leading democratic politicians in these three states write to their friends here very hopefully of the success of such a scheme. If the government at Washington has knowledge of the existence of such a plot, and cannot quietly defeat it, it might be necessary to declare martial law in these states, and imprison at least the leaders of the democratic party. Martial law, in fact, is the only law for a country engaged in a civil war. Just before I left New York, I asked a democratic anti-war editor if he expected to be sent down to Fort Lafayette. "Most likely," was his reply; "If the government does not break us up, we shall certainly break up the government." The editor was not imprisoned. I believe, but his paper was suppressed, which answered the same purpose.

The Writ of Habeas Corpus.—Why don't we hear from the men who are complaining about the suspension of the writ of habeas corpus something about the suspension of the writ in the fugitive slave law. Here is a law which affects not merely the temporary convenience of a citizen, but the life-long liberty of a human being. Is the reason for this silence to be found in the fact that in the one case it protects the interests of slaveholders, and in the other it is necessary to the preservation of the government? The suspension of the writ is a palpable violation of the constitution in the case of the fugitive, because enacted in a time of peace, while under the proclamation of the president the suspension is designed only to punish traitors and their abettors, in a time of domestic war, and is necessary to the very existence of the government. In the conduct of these fault-finders, slavery is treated as paramount to the republic, and a crime against human liberty is approved, while the punishment of treason is worthy only of censure and denunciation.

Nomination for Congress.—We learn that Col. Guppy, of Portage City, has been nominated by the democratic congressional convention for this district.

"I am suprised my dear that I have never seen you blush." "The fact is, husband, I was born to blush unseen."

The Stamp Act.

It appears by the following section of an act to amend the national tax law, that although stamps are due on all legal documents, these are not invalidated in consequence of any failure to use stamps at this time:

Section 24. And be it further enacted, That the 95th section of the act entitled "An act to provide internal revenue to support the government and pay interest on the public debt," approved July 1st, 1862, be so amended that no instrument, document or paper made, signed or issued prior to the 1st day of January 1863, without being duly stamped or having thereon an adhesive stamp to denote the duty imposed thereon, shall for that cause be deemed invalid and of no effect; provided however that no such instrument, document or paper shall be admitted or used as evidence in any court until the same shall have been duly stamped; nor until the holder thereof shall have proved to the satisfaction of the court that he has paid to the collector or deputy collector of the district within which such court may be held, the sum of five dollars for the use of the United States.

The Reason of the Delay.—The correspondent of the New York World now in Gen. McClellan's camp, explains the reasons for not renewing the attack upon the enemy on Thursday of last week, and thus destroying their army upon its retreat, as follows:

"The most weighty military reasons existed for the failure of McClellan to follow up the victory of Wednesday, and to renew the battle on the succeeding day. Two days of such terrific fighting as that on Wednesday is not in human capacity.—Many of our general officers were killed and wounded. Our ranks had suffered such losses as to need some reorganization in many places. Our men were tired, though not dispirited, and needed a day for rest. The rebels might have had large numbers of fresh troops in reserve, and our victory might have been reversed in favor of the rebels. Hundreds of dead and wounded were to be cared for, and, besides all these considerations, some of which by themselves would not justify the delay, there was the additional and more important fact that we had not enough ammunition to carry us through another day of battle."

It may be answered that the army of the enemy was as much fatigued as our own, yet they had sufficient vigor to make good their retreat across a large river, and save every wagon of their immense baggage train; as many of their general officers were killed as in our army, and more of their men; and as to the ammunition giving out, that should not have occurred so near our base of supplies. It is evident that although the battle was well fought the great results which might have flowed from it, if followed up the next day, are measureably lost.

Gens. Nelson and Davis.—The following, which was published in the Indianapolis Journal of last week, will throw some light upon the tragedy at Louisville:

Gen. Jeff C. Davis, of this state, has been superceded from his command by Gen. Nelson, and ordered to report to Gen. Wright. By a letter from Louisville we learn that the cause of the removal was rather less than no cause at all. Gen. Davis reported to Gen. Nelson that he had the brigade assigned to his command, the citizens of Louisville, ready for service, and desired to know if he could get arms for them. "How many men have you?" asked Gen. Nelson. "About 2,500," was the reply. "About 2,500! About 2,500!! You, a regular officer, and report about the number of men in your command. Don't you know, sir, you should give the exact number?" "But, general," replied Davis, "I didn't expect to get the guns now; I only wanted to know if I could get them, and where, and having learned that, I would learn the exact number needed and then draw them." "About 2,500!" persisted Gen. Nelson; "I suspend you from your command, and order you to report to Gen. Wright, and I've a d——d mind to send you out of the the city with a provost guard." And so another Indiana general was suspended for nothing. It is pretty nearly time this sort of thing was ended.

Anticipating Trouble.—Two or three days ago the Madison Patriot had a three column article denouncing the suspension of the writ of habeas corpus, and charging President Lincoln with the offences against public liberty which characterised the French revolution when Robespierre, Marat and Danton enacted their bloody drama, and all the outrages of despotic governments which have resulted in revolutions and dethronements. Judging from the general tenor of the Patriot, we conclude this article is a defence in advance of its own arrest, and a close companionship in Fort Lafayette with Maloney of the Dubuque Herald. The Patriot, as it is now running, is about the dirtiest in its opposition to the government of any paper in the northwest. It has all the malignity of the Chicago Times and Milwaukee News, without the talent or discretion of either of them.

Released.—The Madison Journal says: Adjutant C. K. Dean, of the 2d, and Lieut. T. J. Widvey, of the 3d, were among the released prisoners that arrived from Richmond at Fortress Monroe, on the 25th inst. Their numerous friends in this state will rejoice to hear of their safety, and their release from the cruel and barbarous treatment inflicted upon Union prisoners by the rebel authorities.

The released prisoners confirm the previous reports of the savage and heartless conduct of their captors. Not only were they cruelly treated, but were nearly starved.

The Indians Claimed as Allies.—It has been often asserted by the people of Minnesota that the Indians were instigated by secessionists to commit their recent murders. The proof is in the following paragraph, which we cut from the Richmond Dispatch of the 24th inst.:

As We Expected.—The Yankees are about to send their army captured at Harper's Ferry against the Indians. Has the government no means of retaliating for such a breach of faith?

☞ John Pettit has been nominated for congress by the Copperheads of the 8th Indiana district. The Lafayette Journal says he made a speech a few days ago, in which he said: "If Old Abe will just come to me I'll tell him how to stop this rebellion. Extend slavery over every free state in the Union, and the rebellion will be stopped in sixty days."

Are the the minutes relating to an affair of honor, always drawn up by the seconds?

BY TELEGRAPH.

REPORTED FOR THE DAILY GAZETTE.

BY WISCONSIN STATE TELEGRAPH LINE,
Office in Union Passenger Depot.

Last Night's Report.

Philadelphia, Sept. 30.

The Washington correspondent of the Philadelphia Inquirer says:

It is rumored that the reason of the existing quietude in the army of the Upper Potomac is that commissioners are on their way from the Confederate congress to propose terms of peace, said to be something like the following:

The loyal states to take all the territories and Missouri, Tennessee, Kentucky and Maryland, and make them free or slave states, as may best please them—the cotton states to have a congress of their own to regulate their domestic affairs only; in all other things to be as one and inseparable people for defensive and offensive operations against other countries; to be a unity in matters of postage and revenue service, the same as heretofore, they pledging themselves to return all government property as they found it; they, in addition to a separate congress to regulate their peculiar institutions, to be permitted senators and representatives in our congress, in such numbers as their free white population entitles them to.

Washington, Sept. 30.

The only stamps ready for delivery at the office of the commissioner of internal revenue are check stamps for checks, drafts or orders on sight and prietary stamps for patent medicines, cosmetics, &c. Other stamps will be ready in a few days, of which notice will be given.

Indianapolis, Sept 29.

The news of the death of Gen. Nelson, at the hands of Gen. Davis, created some excitement here this morning. Gen. Nelson, being no favorite of Indianians, no sympathy is expressed as to his sad fate. Davis is universally sustained here.

It has been decided by the war department that the commutation to the persons conscientiously opposed to bearing arms, and thus exempted by the constitution of Indiana, will be $200.

Washington, Sept. 30.

The story published in the Philadelphia papers this morning, that the rebel peace commissioners are on their way to Washington, which may have been telegraphed, is utterly unfounded and ridiculous. The wish is father to the thought.

Persons who have had extended opportunities for observing the feelings of residents of Fairfax, London, Prince William and Faquier counties, Virginia, on the President's emancipation proclamation, say they have been long expecting it, and express no other feeling on the subject than simply that they expect Lincoln's government is at last in earnest.

Politicians here from Vallandigham's district express great confidence in the election of Gen. Schenck. Vallandigham, however, is making prodigious exertions, speaking in every school district where he dare make his appearance.

Amos B. Little, of New Hampshire, former clerk in the patent office, committed suicide to-day, in the National Hotel dining room, during a temporary fit of insanity.

The treasury department is already beginning to derive substantial revenue from the operations of the direct tax law. Over $100,000 were received yesterday from the sale of stamps. The revenue derived within a week or two past is already running well up to a million dollars, and sales are daily increasing. The tonic effect this position of the revenue exerts in bracing up national finances already begins to be felt.

Washington, Sept. 30.

The inquiries recently made in western papers as to the reason why the gunboats for the Ohio river were not finished, are answered by the statement that the contractors were depending on certain Kentucky furnaces for a portion of the iron required for the plating. That the invasion has cut off this cource of supply, and that it has taken some little time to make arrangements for procuring these elsewhere.

Major John J. Key, aid on Halleck's staff, has just been dismissed the service by the President for the expression of disloyal sentiments. He is a brother to Col. Thomas M. Key, judge advocate on McClellan's personal staff. Both are natives of Kentucky. The precise offense for which Key is dismissed, is understood to be remarks that we could easily have annihilated the rebel army at Antietam, but that it was not thought best to annihilate the south by a defeat so overwhelming and galling as to prevent the future reconstruction of the Union on terms equitable to both sections. This remark was reported to Secretary C. B. Smith, who is understood to have called the President's attention to it. In the west he was provost martial general in the department, and thus at Pittsburg [Landing and Corinth was charged with the duty of examining prisoners and deserters from the rebel army. He was the chief mover there in the war on newspaper correspondents.

Cincinnati, Sept. 30.

Gen. Morgan left Cumberland Gap about two weeks ago, with all his forces. It is supposed he is marching in a northeasterly direction, and will strike the Ohio somewhere about Portsmouth. He brought away all the artillery and stores, and blocked up the Gap with stones, so as to render it impassible.

Drafting takes place in this city to-morrow.

Capt. Prentice, son of Geo. D. Prentice, wounded in the Augusta, Ky., fight, died to-day.

AFTERNOON DISPATCHES.

Providence, R. I., Oct. 1.

Brig. Gen. Rodman died on Monday near Hagerstown, of the wound received in the battle of Antietam.

Newark, N. J., Oct. 1.

Two brick buildings 160 feet long, a portion of the extensive patent leather manufactory of T. P. Howell & Co, was destroyed by fire, this morning, with a large quantity of knapsacks and leather. Loss $25,000 fully insured.

A correspondent of the Post says it is understood that Hon. Eli Thayer will immediately receive the appointment of military governor of Florida. This appointment is made with a view to enable Thayer, and those who are acting with him, to carry out their scheme for introducing into the southern states a loyal laboring population.

New York, Oct. 1.

Com. Vanderbilt is converting the steamer Vanderbilt, which he lately gave to the United States government, into a man-of-war. She will carry 12 guns of heavy calibre, and will be the fastest war vessel afloat.

Philadelphia, Oct. 1.

Newark, N. J., Oct. 1.

Hon. Jacob W. Miller, ex-United States senator, died at his residence in Morristown last night.

When the War will End.

When president-making no longer is thought of;
When army-contractors are hanged, or all bought off;
When war-office red-tope is cut up for wadding;
When "West Point" forgets half its pipe-clay and squadding;
When Colonels don't toady, and Brigadiers creep not,
And fools over sensible officers leap not;
When Generals no longer of Generals get jealous,
And the President don't meet all men as "hail fellows"—
Then, perhaps, with the aid of five hundred more millions,
And a single pulse beating through Northern civilians,
We shall wake up in earnest, and play war no more,
And our Union—God bless it!—in six months restore!

County Bounty Fund.

Mr. Holdridge, the county treasurer, had received to-day (Wednesday) the following amounts from the towns and cities in this county on the subscription to the county bounty fund:

A Sigel Demonstration.

The alleged application of Gen. Sigel to be relieved from his command, and the grievances he sets forth in the alleged letter of application to the war department, have produced a profound sensation among the German patriots of Chicago. For a long time past they have been dissatisfied at the treatment to which Sigel has been subjected, dating from his administration in Missouri, where he was stripped of his command by Gen. Halleck, and extending to the present time, when he finds himself again at the head of a small army, by no means proportionate to the service he might render in his location.

With the Germans, and in fact, with many Americans, but with the Germans especially, Gen. Sigel is an idol. They see in him a brave and skillful general, thoroughly schooled in the science of war, imbued with an ardent love of his adopted country, and capable of striking telling blows upon the rebellion, were he only allowed the opportunity. While they are in favor of all loyal generals, their sympathies are naturally strongly enlisted in the fortunes of Sigel. Hence it is that the news of yesterday, which appears in our columns this morning, and which has not been altogether unexpected, produced universal excitement among all classes of the German population, and was the prevailing theme of conversation and discussion in their saloons, shops and social gatherings.

We understand that the prominent Germans of the city, seconded by all of that nativity, have determined to call a public meeting at which it will be demanded that Gen. Sigel shall at least be treated with impartiality; that he shall be allowed a place according to his deserts and be provided with troops enough to carry out his designs, instead of lying in comparative idleness, when his profound military skill might be so profitably employed. Their action will probably be embodied in resolutions which will be forwarded to the President by a special committee.—Chicago Tribune.

☞ The Milwaukee News says that the appointment of provost marshals in the different states, with power to make arrests by order of the president "practically suspends both federal and state governments." This is not true. The civil affairs of the people go on as usual, without interference on the part of the president. But in every thing that relates to the war and the suppression of the rebellion the president has all the power necessary for that purpose, as commander-in-chief of the army and navy. The constitution and laws give him this authority in conducting a war. Such misrepresentations as are contained in the News must proceed from a mind which desires to see the president so tied up by writs, courts, juries and lawyers, that he cannot suppress the rebellion. The loyalty of such a person may well be doubted.

James Redpath publishes a card in the Boston papers stating the present condition of the John Brown family, and what has been done for it by the Haytiens. The people of Hayti have contributed $3,349, which has been distributed among the families of John Brown and his companions. Of the five followers of John Brown who escaped from Harper's Ferry, only three now survive—Owen Brown, F. J. Merian and O. P. Anderson. Tidd joined Burnside's expedition, and died at Roanoke Island, on the eve of a victory; Barclay Coppic, whose brother was executed at Charleston, was one of the victims of the Platte Bridge atrocity. Owen Brown is physically unfit for military duty; John, Jr., was in Montgomery's regiment until sickness compelled him to resign. His place is now filled by Mr. Hoyt, the lawyer who volunteered to defend John Brown at Charlestown.

☞ It is reported at Washington that fresh charges are preferred against Fitz John Porter. It is said that Gens. Burnside and Pleasanton have accused him of refusing or neglecting to send reinforcements when they were needed. These, with charges preferred by Gen. Pope, will be investigated on an early occasion.

A Patriotic Family—Who can beat it?—In a family named Ernest, living in this county, the following members have joined Capt. Marscher's company of this city: They are Isaac, Abraham, John, Marine, Peter, Samuel, Mathew, James, Abraham, jr., Isaac, jr., Jacob, John, jr., and Isaiah, all able bodied men; and more are said to be coming! If any other town, county or state can furnish an equal number of E(a)rnest, liberty-loving volunteers from one family, they will bring up their reserve.—Sheboygan Times.

An Unmistakable Sign of Disloyalty.—Whenever you open a paper and find it mainly filled up with abuse of abolitionists, and whimperings over the arrest and imprisonment of disloyal persons, you may be sure its sympathies are entirely with the rebels. You need not stop to ask what its editor professes, for just so certain as the needle points to the north pole, so certain is it that the above indications point to disloyalty.

Balmoral Skirts.—The Pontoosuc manufacturing company has eighty looms employed in the production of Balmoral skirts, for which there is said to be more than two hundred looms engaged in the same manufacture in Pittsfield and vicinity.—Pittsfield (Mass.) Sun.

The First Slaves Made Free in Kentucky.—The provost marshal of Newport, Kentucky, has set free three slaves who escaped from their rebel masters in Bragg's army. These are the first slaves who secure their freedom under the confiscation law.

Our Losses at Iuka.—Gen. Hamilton lost out of his division in the battle of Iuka, killed 135; wounded 527; missing 26. He lost five from his personal staff and bodyguard. Making in all of killed and wounded, 693. The rebel loss was much greater. Gen. Hamilton buried 963 of the rebel dead; 400 of their wounded fell into his hands, and he took a large number of prisoners. Also, about 800 stand of arms.

A Thousand People have a Fall.—Near the close of the performance at Mabie's great show last Tuesday afternoon, about half the seats in the tent went crashing down to the ground with the portion of the audience crowded on them. The excitement was intense for a few moments, but order was soon restored on learning that no one was dangerously hurt. The manager of the show very promptly offered to pay all damages and expenses—a very gentlemanly and generous act.—Fond du Lac Reporter.

Personal.—Lieut. Col. LaGrange, of the 1st Cavalry, arrived in town a few days ago, being quite indisposed on account of the arduous duties of an active campaign. He has sought the retirement of the country, to recruit his health.

The regiment is nearly devoid of field officers at present—Col. Daniels being still in a precarious situation at South Pass, Ill., and Major Eggleston is still at home, in a rather feeble state.—Ripon Times.

An old gentleman who was always bragging how folks used to work in his younger days, one day challenged his two sons to pitch on a load of hay as fast as he could load it. The challenge was accepted, the hay wagon driven round, and the trial commenced. For some time the old man held his own very creditably, calling out "More hay! more hay!" Thicker and faster it came. The old man was nearly covered; still he kept crying, "More hay! more hay!" At length, struggling to keep on the top of the ill-arranged heap, it began first to roll, then to slide, and at last off it went from the wagon, and the old man with it. "What are you down here for?" cried the boys. "I came down after more hay?" answered the old man, stoutly.

A Boston merchant having been applied to for aid in repairing a church, very much disgusted the applicants by telling them there were thousands of God Almighty's noblest temples—Man—on James river, sadly out of repair, and every dollar of his money should go to that work. A church will not suffer so much for paint as the soldiers for shirts.

DR. J BOVEE DODS'
IMPERIAL WINE
BITTERS,

ARE made from a pure and unadulterated Wine, which is about double the usual strength of other Wines, and is imported by only one house in the United States. Also, from the following valuable Roots, Herbs, &c., viz: Solomon's Seal, Spikenard, Camomile Flowers, Gentian, Wild Cherry Tree Bark, and Bayberry.

WE CHALLENGE

THEIR EQUAL!

We do not profess to have discovered some Roots "known only to the Indians of South America," and a cure for "all diseases which flesh is heir to," but we claim to present to the public a truly valuable preparation, which every intelligent Physician in the country will approve of and recommend. As a remedy for

INCIPIENT CONSUMPTION,

Weak Lungs, Indigestion, Dyspepsia, Diseases of the Nervous System, Paralysis, Piles, Diseases peculiar to Females, Debility, and all cases requiring a Tonic, they are

UNSURPASSED!

For Sore Throat, so common among the Clergy, they are truly valuable.
For the aged and infirm; or for persons of a weak constitution—for Ministers of the Gospel, Lawyers, and all public speakers—for Book-Keepers, Tailors, Seamstresses, Students, Artists, and all persons leading a sedentary life, they will prove truly beneficial.
As a Beverage, they are wholesome, innocent, and delicious to the taste. They produce all the exhilarating effects of Brandy or Wine, without intoxicating; and are a valuable remedy for persons addicted to excessive use of strong drink, and wish to refrain from it. They are pure and entirely free from the poison contained in the adulterated Wines and Liquors with which the country is flooded.
These Bitters not only CURE, but PREVENT Disease, and should be used by all who live in a country where the water is bad, or where Chills and Fevers are prevalent. Being entirely innocent and harmless, they may be given freely to Children and Infants with impunity.
Physicians, Clergymen and temperance advocates, as an act of humanity, should assist in spreading these truly valuable BITTERS over the land, and thereby essentially aid in banishing Drunkenness and Disease.

DAILY GAZETTE.

The Foreign Demand for American Breadstuffs--Practical Hints.

Last winter and spring, the prospect was that after the harvest of 1862, the large foreign demand for our breadstuffs would nearly cease. It was certainly to be expected that after two short harvests, and with the extraordinary breadth of winter wheat sown in good condition last autumn, this year would witness an abundant supply in England and on the continent. But the result is, (happily for us) quite otherwise. Every succeeding week's intelligence brings out this fact more clearly. As one certain indication, we may note that in London, wheat and flour are considerably higher than they were last year, and during the early summer of this year. It is now evident that, owing to continuous rains all through the early summer, the wheat straw in Great Britain made a poor sickly growth. On this point we are positive from our own observation. Such straw could not yield large heads of plump grain. The best authorities, and reports from hundreds of careful observers in different parts of the kingdom, admit a yield quite below the average. In France, and in Central Europe, the wheat crop is not above the average—rather below if anything. The condition of the wheat crop in Portugal, and probably in Spain, is sufficiently indicated by the fact that the Portuguese government has taken the unusual course of throwing open the ports of that country to the free importation of breadstuffs. Official announcement of this was made to our government through the Portuguese minister, a few days since. In short, the whole tenor of our recent advices from the other side of the Atlantic, is, that there will be a steady demand for all the breadstuffs we can spare from our crop of 1862. From what we can gather, the breadth of wheat sown in our own country this fall is not large, owing mainly to the scarcity of labor. It becomes us to consume corn largely, and save our wheat for market. It will be well, also, for farmers to plan for a large surface of spring wheat, wherever it can be grown with advantage. As much ground as possible should be broken up before the ground freezes. The action of frost upon new-plowed land is very useful, and the soil broken up now will be in condition for working earlier in spring.—American Agriculturist.

THE HARPER'S FERRY AFFAIR.—The shameful surrender of this place frets like a canker worm upon every loyal heart. The more it is thought of, and the more facts are developed, the more annoying becomes the reflection that our government has been subjected to so tame a surrender of so important a point, and so humiliating a sacrifice. It now appears that the number of our brave soldiers taken prisoners, paroled and lost to the service, at a time, too, when they are needed and could be made serviceable, is not short of fourteen thousand, with all their small arms—14,000—one hundred cannon, including six or seven fine batteries, a large number of horses and mules, one hundred tons of ammunition, and supplies for fourteen thousand men twenty days. It makes every one feel ashamed, superinducing thoughts of imbecility, treachery, &c., as he sees these paroled prisoners, by whole regiments, passing through our streets daily, bereft of the fine accouterments, arms, &c., they possessed when they came up from the loyal states to fight for the Union. We also feel a deeper blush of shame in having the fact forced upon us, that Harper's Ferry with its valuable stores, and brave men, were yielded up without being allowed to strike a blow in their own defense, while, at the same time, they felt their ability to hold the place, or show fight, at least, until relieved by re-enforcements. Two regiments of the parolled prisoners from this regretfully remembered place passed thro' here to-day for Camp Douglas at Chicago. I believe the design is to use these troops against the refractory Indians until such time as we capture enough of the rebels to effect their exchange. Ten thousand additional exchanges have recently been agreed upon. A few more Harper's Ferry and Munfordsville affairs will throw upon us, wholly useless, an army of paroled prisoners, half as large as the entire rebel army.—Baltimore Cor. Cincinnati Gazette.

NEW BUSINESS FOR THE CORN EXCHANGE.—A good thing come off on Tuesday, when the Corn Exchange's last crops left Philadelphia for Harrisburg. Among the men was one who had a young wife. While they were waiting for the order to march, the young wife was taking leave of her husband, in accents broken, and eyes that lay bedewed in tears, like violets in a summer shower. The man caressed her, but the tears still started; he told her of the patriotism and munificence of the Corn Exchange Association, yet the crystals continued to fall; he told her of the country's danger, but her anguish was not soothed. At last, weary of his endeavors, he tried another tack. "Sally," said he, "quit crying. You see what the Corn Exchange has done. They have paid you my bounty, fitted me out, and everything."
"Yes," the girl sobbed, "but"—
"But what?"
"But if you get killed—what then?"
"Why"—the man hesitated for a moment until a lucky thought struck him—"Why the Corn Exchange will find you another husband!"
The ludicrousness of the idea changed the current of the girl's feelings, and a smile wreathed her pretty mouth and dimples in a manner that was pleasant to behold. The last tear rolled away, and as the word "forward" was given, she gave the young recruit a last kiss, and departed in good cheer.—Phila. Am.

Another Tableaux Party.

The ladies of this city are busily preparing another series of tableaux, charades, etc., to be exhibited at Lappin's Hall on Tuesday evening, Oct. 7, the profits to be devoted to supplying the wants of our sick and wounded soldiers, through the medium of the Ladies' Hospital Relief Society.

The tableaux party given some four weeks since under the management of nearly the same committee who have charge of the one in contemplation, was decidedly a success; and the money realized furnished very timely aid to the society, which would soon have been obliged to suspend its benevolent work for lack of funds. Such is the call for sanitary stores that this society has more applications for aid than it can supply. Again the treasury is nearly empty. It is this need, together with the urgent desire expressed by many citizens, the former tableaux might be repeated, that has induced the ladies to decide on giving another similar entertainment next Tuesday evening. Refreshments will be provided, and no effort will be wanting to secure good music, and to make the affair most satisfactory.

DEATH OF EDWARD O. WRIGHT.—We regret to hear that Mr. Wright of this city received to-day information of the death of his son Edward in Fairfax Seminary hospital. He sank gradually, we understand, after the operation performed upon him. His body, we learn, is expected here sometime this week.

CHAPTER MEETING.—The regular meeting of Janesville Chapter, R. A. M., will be held at the lodge room in Young America block, to-morrow evening at 7 o'clock. Every member is hereby notified to be present.

E. LEWIS, H. P.

☞ Cadwell's Opera Troupe performed last evening at Lappin's Hall, for the first time. On account of the inclemency of the weather the house was not as full as we anticipated. We have seen a number of minstrel troupes in Lappin's Hall, and think we can safely say that this is the best company of the kind that has ever visited us. To-night they perform again with an entire change of programme, introducing for the first time in this city the great burlesque opera of "Oh Hush." Let the hall be filled. Cards of admission 25 cents.

DANE COUNTY REPUBLICAN TICKET.—Willet S. Main, sheriff; Wm. Vroman, treasurer; A. Pickarts, register; Frank H. Firmin, clerk of the court; J. H. Carpenter, district attorney; John A. Johnson, clerk of the board; T. D. Coryell, surveyor; Samuel Shumway, coroner. This is a strong and popular ticket, and with suitable effort can be elected.

☞ Gen. Hooker, who was wounded in the foot at the battle of Antietam, is improving, and will soon leave Washington and return to northern New York, where his family resides.

A LARGE APPLE.—We have in our office an apple raised by Wm. Strawser in the town of Janesville, which weighs 21½ ounces, and is 14½ inches in circumference.

Renting of Slips Postponed.

The renting of the slips in Christ Church is postponed until Thursday next, at 10 o'clock A. M.

H. T. SELBY,
d2t. Secretary.

Judson's Mountain Herb Pills.—How strange and wonderful it often seems to us that a medicine composed of simple mountain herbs and roots, should so certainly search out and cure disease. How surprising that the Indians should know and preserve so long and well a secret that has escaped the search of the greatest physicians the world has ever seen. True, the ancient inhabitants of Mexico were a strange race, found by the Spaniards living in large cities, and allowing for their strange customs and religion as well civilized as their conquerors. In the words of a writer of some celebrity, "They have perished from the earth, their cities are gigantic piles of ruins, their Kings and Princes so mighty in their life, are forgotten; their ruins and their medicine alone are left." The united testimony of all intelligent persons is, that JUDSON'S MOUNTAIN HERB PILLS are the most successful medicine in the world in curing disease.

Sold by all Medicine Dealers. se15dawlm

WOOL—wanted at 45a50c fair to choice clips.

Chicago Market.

TUESDAY, Sept. 30, 3 P. M.

There was little or no inquiry for spring wheat today and the market was dull and neglected; small sales of No 1 were made at 91a92c, and No 2 at 81a85c. Winter wheat was in good request but prices were irregular; No 1 red sold at 1,01½a1,03, No 2 white at 1,00, No 2 red at 95a96c and rejected at 89½a90c. The flour market was scarcely so firm, but there was no quotable change in prices.

Corn was in fair demand for shipment and the market ruled firm and steady with sales of yellow at 36½c afloat, high mixed at 34¾c afloat, canal mixed at 32a 33½c afloat, yellow at 31a32½c in store, mixed at 30a 31c in store, and rejected at 25½a26c in store.

Oats opened firm and buoyant, with liberal sales at 24½a25c, but towards the close the market became rather tame, and several thousand bushels changed hands at 24c. Rye ruled steady and firm at 42c for No 1.

Barley was in good request, and for prime grades the market was very firm, sales ranged from 70a75c for good to choice lots. Timothy seed steady.

Provisions quiet, 270 barrels city packed mess pork sold at $9,50.

Lake freights ruled steady with engagements at 10c for corn and 8c for oats to Buffalo, 7½c for rye to Collingwood, and 15c for corn to Kingston.

The demand for eastern exchange is light, and the market rather heavy. The banks are buying at ¼a ½ per cent discount and selling at ⅛ per cent premium. Round lots could doubtless be had at par.—Currency is in fair supply and good demand for the movement of produce. Rates of discount range from 8a10c per annum. Gold is still advancing. The brokers to day were offering 1,22a1,22½, and 1,23 might be obtained for a fair amount. Custom house notes have advanced in New York to 1,20½. The buying rates here to-day were 1,18a1,19.

THERE is nothing so much sought for by the public as a practical Sewing Machine, one that is Simple, Strong & Reliable.

One that will run for years without the annoyance of being out of repair; one that is noiseless and swift in motion; also that makes the stitch as you want it, alike on both sides of the fabric; such are the machines of the

and have all the advantage of a reversible feed motion, which carries the work either way, which, together with making all the four stitches, can be done whilst the machine is in motion; the saving of time in stopping to change the length of stitch, is obviated by this machine.

Any correspondence regarding our Machines will be promptly answered. Enclose a Letter Stamp and we will send circular and sample of work by return mail.

Propositions for Peace.

The statement that the rebels have commissioners on the way with propositions for peace, is already contradicted. We trust it will be useless for them to make any offers whatever. The government should turn a deaf ear to them, and go on with the fighting, until they lay down their arms and submit to the constitution and the laws. These are the only terms which the loyal people will listen to. It would be a very convenient thing for them to have an armistice of a few months, but not for us. All terms are out of the question, and all delays for such purpose are ruinous to our cause.

The Conspiracy.

The following is from the London correspondence of the New York Times, of the 9th ult. It was written in advance of the President's late proclamation suspending the writ of habeas corpus, yet curiously enough it anticipates that important document. The recent violent opposition of the leaders of the democratic party against all the efforts of the administration to suppress the rebellion, and the attempt to array that party in opposition to every war measure, gives color to the suspicion that they have a secret understanding with the southern traitors:

The correspondent of the London Herald, whose name, character and antecedents are well known in England, and whose feelings and notions are, by some at least, well understood, lets a very black cat out of the bag in one of his recent letters. I have before this given you an intimation of a conspiracy on the part of leading northern democrats to carry over at least three northern states to the southern confederacy.— These states are Pennsylvania, Ohio and Indiana. I ought, perhaps, to include Illinois. How far this project has been carried towards its attempted realization, it would be difficult to say. You have more accurate information than I can gather here. But, if as far advanced as I think it probable, an effort will be made at the coming elections. It is certain that leading democratic politicians in these three states write to their friends here very hopefully of the success of such a scheme. If the government at Washington has knowledge of the existence of such a plot, and cannot quietly defeat it, it might be necessary to declare martial law in these states, and imprison at least the leaders of the democratic party. Martial law, in fact, is the only law for a country engaged in a civil war. Just before I left New York, I asked a democratic anti-war editor if he expected to be sent down to Fort Lafayette. "Most likely," was his reply; "If the government does not break us up, we shall certainly break up the government." The editor was not imprisoned, I believe, but his paper was suppressed, which answered the same purpose.

The Writ of Habeas Corpus.—Why don't we hear from the men who are complaining about the suspension of the writ of habeas corpus something about the suspension of the writ in the fugitive slave law. Here is a law which affects not merely the temporary convenience of a citizen, but the life-long liberty of a human being. Is the reason for this silence to be found in the fact that in the one case it protects the interests of slaveholders, and in the other it is necessary to the preservation of the government? The suspension of the writ is a palpable violation of the constitution in the case of the fugitive, because enacted in a time of peace, while under the proclamation of the president the suspension is designed only to punish traitors and their abettors, in a time of domestic war, and is necessary to the very existence of the government. In the conduct of these fault-finders, slavery is treated as paramount to the republic, and a crime against human liberty is approved, while the punishment of treason is worthy only of censure and denunciation.

Nomination for Congress.—We learn that Col. Guppy, of Portage City, has been nominated by the democratic congressional convention for this district.

"I am suprised my dear that I have never seen you blush." "The fact is, husband, I was born to blush unseen."

The Stamp Act.

It appears by the following section of an act to amend the national tax law, that although stamps are due on all legal documents, these are not invalidated in consequence of any failure to use stamps at this time:

Section 24. And be it further enacted, That the 95th section of the act entitled "An act to provide internal revenue to support the government and pay interest on the public debt," approved July 1st, 1862, be so amended that no instrument, document or paper made, signed or issued prior to the 1st day of January 1863, without being duly stamped or having thereon an adhesive stamp to denote the duty imposed thereon, shall for that cause be deemed invalid and of no effect; provided however that no such instrument, document or paper shall be admitted or used as evidence in any court until the same shall have been duly stamped; nor until the holder thereof shall have proved to the satisfaction of the court that he has paid to the collector or deputy collector of the district within which such court may be held, the sum of five dollars for the use of the United States.

The Reason of the Delay.—The correspondent of the New York World now in Gen. McClellan's camp, explains the reasons for not renewing the attack upon the enemy on Thursday of last week, and thus destroying their army upon its retreat, as follows:

"The most weighty military reasons existed for the failure of McClellan to follow up the victory of Wednesday, and to renew the battle on the succeeding day. Two days of such terrific fighting as that on Wednesday is not in human capacity.— Many of our general officers were killed and wounded. Our ranks had suffered such losses as to need some reorganization in many places. Our men were tired, though not dispirited, and needed a day for rest. The rebels might have had large numbers of fresh troops in reserve, and our victory might have been reversed in favor of the rebels. Hundreds of dead and wounded were to be cared for, and, besides all these considerations, some of which by themselves would not justify the delay, there was the additional and more important fact that we had not enough ammunition to carry us through another day of battle."

It may be answered that the army of the enemy was as much fatigued as our own, yet they had sufficient vigor to make good their retreat across a large river, and save every wagon of their immense baggage train; as many of their general officers were killed as in our army, and more of their men; and as to the ammunition giving out, that should not have occurred so near our base of supplies. It is evident that although the battle was well fought the great results which might have flowed from it, if followed up the next day, are measureably lost.

Gens. Nelson and Davis.—The following, which was published in the Indianapolis Journal of last week, will throw some light upon the tragedy at Louisville:

Gen. Jeff C. Davis, of this state, has been superceded from his command by Gen. Nelson, and ordered to report to Gen. Wright. By a letter from Louisville we learn that the cause of the removal was rather less than no cause at all. Gen. Davis reported to Gen. Nelson that he had the brigade assigned to his command, the citizens of Louisville, ready for service, and desired to know if he could get arms for them. "How many men have you?" asked Gen. Nelson. "About 2,500," was the reply. "About 2,500! About 2,500!! You, a regular officer, and report about the number of men in your command. Don't you know, sir, you should give the exact number?" "But, general," replied Davis, "I didn't expect to get the guns now; I only wanted to know if I could get them, and where, and having learned that, I would learn the exact number needed and then draw them." "About 2,500!" persisted Gen. Nelson; "I suspend you from your command, and order you to report to Gen. Wright, and I've a d——d mind to send you out of the the city with a provost guard." And so another Indiana general was suspended for nothing. It is pretty nearly time this sort of thing was ended.

Anticipating Trouble.—Two or three days ago the Madison Patriot had a three column article denouncing the suspension of the writ of habeas corpus, and charging President Lincoln with the offences against public liberty which characterised the French revolution when Robespierre, Marat and Danton enacted their bloody drama, and all the outrages of despotic governments which have resulted in revolutions and dethronements. Judging from the general tenor of the Patriot, we conclude this article is a defence in advance of its own arrest, and a close companionship in Fort Lafayette with Maloney of the Dubuque Herald. The Patriot, as it is now running, is about the dirtiest in its opposition to the government of any paper in the northwest. It has all the malignity of the Chicago Times and Milwaukee News, without the talent or discretion of either of them.

Released.—The Madison Journal says: Adjutant C. K. Dean, of the 2d, and Lieut. T. J. Widvey, of the 3d, were among the released prisoners that arrived from Richmond at Fortress Monroe, on the 25th inst. Their numerous friends in this state will rejoice to hear of their safety, and their release from the cruel and barbarous treatment inflicted upon Union prisoners by the rebel authorities.

The released prisoners confirm the previous reports of the savage and heartless conduct of their captors. Not only were they cruelly treated, but were nearly starved.

The Indians Claimed as Allies.—It has been often asserted by the people of Minnesota that the Indians were instigated by secessionists to commit their recent murders. The proof is in the following paragraph, which we cut from the Richmond Dispatch of the 24th inst.:

As We Expected.—The Yankees are about to send their army captured at Harper's Ferry against the Indians. Has the government no means of retaliating for such a breach of faith?

☞ John Pettit has been nominated for congress by the Copperheads of the 8th Indiana district. The Lafayette Journal says he made a speech a few days ago, in which he said: "If Old Abe will just come to me I'll tell him how to stop this rebellion. Extend slavery over every free state in the Union, and the rebellion will be stopped in sixty days."

Are the the minutes relating to an affair of honor, always drawn up by the seconds?

BY TELEGRAPH.

REPORTED FOR THE DAILY GAZETTE.

BY WISCONSIN STATE TELEGRAPH LINE, Office in Union Passenger Depot.

Last Night's Report.

PHILADELPHIA, Sept. 30.

The Washington correspondent of the Philadelphia Inquirer says:

It is rumored that the reason of the existing quietude in the army of the Upper Potomac is that commissioners are on their way from the Confederate congress to propose terms of peace, said to be something like the following:

The loyal states to take all the territories and Missouri, Tennessee, Kentucky and Maryland, and make them free or slave states, as may best please them—the cotton states to have a congress of their own to regulate their domestic affairs only; in all other things to be as one and inseparable people for defensive and offensive operations against other countries; to be a unity in matters of postage and revenue service, the same as heretofore, they pledging themselves to return all government property as they found it; they, in addition to a separate congress to regulate their peculiar institutions, to be permitted senators and representatives in our congress, in such numbers as their free white population entitles them to.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 30.

The only stamps ready for delivery at the office of the commissioner of internal revenue are check stamps for checks, drafts or orders on sight and prietary stamps for patent medicines, cosmetics, &c. Other stamps will be ready in a few days, of which notice will be given.

INDIANAPOLIS, Sept 29.

The news of the death of Gen. Nelson, at the hands of Gen. Davis, created some excitement here this morning. Gen. Nelson, being no favorite of Indianians, no sympathy is expressed as to his sad fate. Davis is universally sustained here.

It has been decided by the war department that the commutation to the persons conscientiously opposed to bearing arms, and thus exempted by the constitution of Indiana, will be $200.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 30.

The story published in the Philadelphia papers this morning, that the rebel peace commissioners are on their way to Washington, which may have been telegraphed, is utterly unfounded and ridiculous. The wish is father to the thought.

Persons who have had extended opportunities for observing the feelings of residents of Fairfax, Loudon, Prince William and Faquier counties, Virginia, on the President's emancipation proclamation, say they have been long expecting it, and express no other feeling on the subject than simply that they expect Lincoln's government is at last in earnest.

Politicians here from Vallandigham's district express great confidence in the election of Gen. Schenck. Vallandigham, however, is making prodigious exertions, speaking in every school district where he dare make his appearance.

Amos B. Little, of New Hampshire, former clerk in the patent office, committed suicide to-day, in the National Hotel dining room, during a temporary fit of insanity.

The treasury department is already beginning to derive substantial revenue from the operations of the direct tax law. Over $100,000 were received yesterday from the sale of stamps. The revenue derived within a week or two past is already running well up to a million dollars, and sales are daily increasing. The tonic effect this position of the revenue exerts in bracing up national finances already begins to be felt.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 30.

The inquiries recently made in western papers as to the reason why the gunboats for the Ohio river were not finished, are answered by the statement that the contractors were depending on certain Kentucky furnaces for a portion of the iron required for the plating. That the invasion has cut off this cource of supply, and that it has taken some little time to make arrangements for procuring these elsewhere.

Major John J. Key, aid on Halleck's staff, has just been dismissed the service by the President for the expression of disloyal sentiments. He is a brother to Col. Thomas M. Key, judge advocate on McClellan's personal staff. Both are natives of Kentucky. The precise offense for which Key is dismissed, is understood to be remarks that we could easily have annihilated the rebel army at Antietam, but that it was not thought best to annihilate the south by a defeat so overwhelming and galling as to prevent the future reconstruction of the Union on terms equitable to both sections. This remark was reported to Secretary C. B. Smith, who is understood to have called the President's attention to it. In the west he was provost martial general in the department, and thus at Pittsburg [Landing and Corinth was charged with the duty of examining prisoners and deserters from the rebel army. He was the chief mover there in the war on newspaper correspondents.

CINCINNATI, Sept. 30.

Gen. Morgan left Cumberland Gap about two weeks ago, with all his forces. It is supposed he is marching in a northeasterly direction, and will strike the Ohio somewhere about Portsmouth. He brought away all the artillery and stores, and blocked up the Gap with stones, so as to render it impassible.

Drafting takes place in this city to-morrow.

Capt. Prentice, son of Geo. D. Prentice, wounded in the Augusta, Ky., fight, died to day.

AFTERNOON DISPATCHES.

PROVIDENCE, R. I., Oct. 1.

Brig. Gen. Rodman died on Monday near Hagerstown, of the wound received in the battle of Antietam.

NEWARK, N. J., Oct. 1.

Two brick buildings 166 feet long, a portion of the extensive patent leather manufactory of T. P. Howell & Co, was destroyed by fire, this morning, with a large quantity of knapsacks and leather. Loss $25,000 fully insured.

A correspondent of the Post says it is understood that Hon. Eli Thayer will immediately receive the appointment of military governor of Florida. This appointment is made with a view to enable Thayer, and those who are acting with him, to carry out their scheme for introducing into the southern states a loyal laboring population.

NEW YORK, Oct. 1.

Com. Vanderbilt is converting the steamer Vanderbilt, which he lately gave to the United States government, into a man-of-war. She will carry 12 guns of heavy calibre, and will be the fastest war vessel afloat.

PHILADELPHIA, Oct. 1.

Peterson's Detector cautions the public of a new and dangerous counterfeit on the City Bank of Montreal, Canada, of denomination of fours.

NEW YORK, Oct. 1.

When the War will End.

When president making no longer is thought of;
When army-contractors are hanged, or all bought off;
When war-office red-tape is cut up for wadding;
When "West Point" forgets half its pipe clay and squadding;
When Colonels don't toady, and Brigadiers creep not,
And fools over sensible officers leap not;
When Generals no longer of Generals get jealous,
And the President don't meet all men as "hail fellows"—
Then, perhaps, with the aid of five hundred more millions,
And a single pulse beating through Northern civilians,
We shall wake up in earnest, and play war no more,
And our Union—God bless it!—in six months restore!

A Sigel Demonstration.

The alleged application of Gen. Sigel to be relieved from his command, and the grievances he sets forth in the alleged letter of application to the war department, have produced a profound sensation among the German patriots of Chicago. For a long time past they have been dissatisfied at the treatment to which Sigel has been subjected, dating from his administration in Missouri, where he was stripped of his command by Gen. Halleck, and extending to the present time, when he finds himself again at the head of a small army, by no means proportionate to the service he might render in his location.

With the Germans, and in fact, with many Americans, but with the Germans especially, Gen. Sigel is an idol. They see in him a brave and skillful general, thoroughly schooled in the science of war, imbued with an ardent love of his adopted country, and capable of striking telling blows upon the rebellion, were he only allowed the opportunity. While they are in favor of all loyal generals, their sympathies are naturally strongly enlisted in the fortunes of Sigel. Hence it is that the news of yesterday, which appears in our columns this morning, and which has not been altogether unexpected, produced universal excitement among all classes of the German population, and was the prevailing theme of conversation and discussion in their saloons, shops and social gatherings.

We understand that the prominent Germans of the city, seconded by all of that nativity, have determined to call a public meeting at which it will be demanded that Gen. Sigel shall at least be treated with impartiality; that he shall be allowed a place according to his deserts and be provided with troops enough to carry out his designs, instead of lying in comparative idleness, when his profound military skill might be so profitably employed. Their action will probably be embodied in resolutions which will be forwarded to the President by a special committee.—Chicago Tribune.

☞ The Milwaukee News says that the appointment of provost marshals in the different states, with power to make arrests by order of the president "practically suspends both federal and state governments." This is not true. The civil affairs of the people go on as usual, without interference on the part of the president. But in every thing that relates to the war and the suppression of the rebellion the president has all the power necessary for that purpose, as commander-in-chief of the army and navy. The constitution and laws give him this authority in conducting a war. Such misrepresentations as are contained in the News must proceed from a mind which desires to see the president so tied up by writs, courts, juries and lawyers, that he cannot suppress the rebellion. The loyalty of such a person may well be doubted.

James Redpath publishes a card in the Boston papers stating the present condition of the John Brown family, and what has been done for it by the Haytions. The people of Hayti have contributed $3,319, which has been distributed among the families of John Brown and his companions. Of the five followers of John Brown who escaped from Harper's Ferry, only three now survive—Owen Brown, F. J. Merian and O. P. Anderson. Tidd joined Burnside's expedition, and died at Roanoke Island, on the eve of a victory; Barclay Coppic, whose brother was executed at Charleston, was one of the victims of the Platte Bridge atrocity. Owen Brown is physically unfit for military duty; John, Jr., was in Montgomery's regiment until sickness compelled him to resign. His place is now filled by Mr. Hoyt, the lawyer who volunteered to defend John Brown at Charlestown.

☞ It is reported at Washington that fresh charges are preferred against Fitz John Porter. It is said that Gens. Burnside and Pleasanton have accused him of refusing or neglecting to send reinforcements when they were needed. These, with charges preferred by Gen. Pope, will be investigated on an early occasion.

A Patriotic Family—Who can beat it?—In a family named Ernest, living in this county, the following members have joined Capt. Marscher's company of this city: They are Isaac, Abraham, John, Marine, Peter, Samuel, Mathew, James, Abraham, jr., Isaac, jr., Jacob, John, jr., and Isaiah, all able bodied men; and more are said to be coming! If any other town, county or state can furnish an equal number of E(a)rnest, liberty-loving volunteers from one family, they will bring up their reserve.—Sheboygan Times.

An Unmistakable Sign of Disloyalty. —Whenever you open a paper and find it mainly filled up with abuse of abolitionists, and whimperings over the arrest and imprisonment of disloyal persons, you may be sure its sympathies are entirely with the rebels. You need not stop to ask what its editor professes, for just so certain as the needle points to the north pole, so certain is it that the above indications point to disloyalty.

Balmoral Skirts.—The Pontoosuc manufacturing company has eighty looms employed in the production of Balmoral skirts, for which there is said to be more than two hundred looms engaged in the same manufacture in Pittsfield and vicinity.—Pittsfield (Mass.) Sun.

The First Slaves Made Free in Kentucky.—The provost marshal of Newport, Kentucky, has set free three slaves who escaped from their rebel masters in Bragg's army. These are the first slaves who secure their freedom under the confiscation law.

Our Losses at Iuka.—Gen. Hamilton lost out of his division in the battle of Iuka, killed 135; wounded 527; missing 26. He lost five from his personal staff and body-guard. Making in all of killed and wounded, 693. The rebel loss was much greater. Gen. Hamilton buried 963 of the rebel dead; 400 of their wounded fell into his hands, and he took a large number of prisoners. Also, about 800 stand of arms.

A Thousand People have a Fall.— Near the close of the performance at Mabie's great show last Tuesday afternoon, about half the seats in the tent went crashing down to the ground with the portion of the audience crowded on them. The excitement was intense for a few moments, but order was soon restored on learning that no one was dangerously hurt. The manager of the show very promptly offered to pay all damages and expenses—a very gentlemanly and generous act.—Fond du Lac Reporter.

Personal.—Lieut. Col. LaGrange, of the 1st Cavalry, arrived in town a few days ago, being quite indisposed on account of the arduous duties of an active campaign. He has sought the retirement of the country, to recruit his health.

The regiment is nearly devoid of field officers at present—Col. Daniels being still in a precarious situation at South Pass, Ill., and Major Eggleston is still at home, in a rather feeble state.—Ripon Times.

An old gentleman who was always bragging how folks used to work in his younger days, one day challenged his two sons to pitch on a load of hay as fast as he could load it. The challenge was accepted, the hay wagon driven round, and the trial commenced. For some time the old man held his own very creditably, calling out "More hay! more hay!" Thicker and faster it came. The old man was nearly covered; still he kept crying, "More hay! more hay!" At length, struggling to keep on the top of the ill-arranged heap, it began first to roll, then to slide, and at last off it went from the wagon, and the old man with it. "What are you down here for?" cried the boys. "I came down after more hay?" answered the old man, stoutly.

A Boston merchant having been applied to for aid in repairing a church, very much disgusted the applicants by telling them there were thousands of God Almighty's noblest temples—Man—on James river, sadly out of repair, and every dollar of his money should go to that work. A church will not suffer so much for paint as the soldiers for shirts.
